Tabor Talent, Round One

By Jean Perry

This weekend was the first of two fall drama productions, Human Geometry. Written by Tabor Academy English and drama teacher Mark Howland, the original comedy “blurs the lines of gender roles” and explores the way mathematical concepts can be used to define friendships and romantic relationships.

Howland has written seven drama productions for Tabor Academy, and he has described the play Human Geometry as “Tabor-specific,” with references to local landmarks such as Cumberland Farms and Lillard Dorm.

Howland directed the play, and senior Nicole McLaughlin developed the choreography. Juniors Lucy Saltonstall and Joslyn Jenkins were the music directors, uniting with junior Max Gonye and freshman Steven Walxim in the ukulele chorus.

The play opened Thursday, November 5, at the Will Parker Black Box Theatre and ran through Saturday night.

Opening night for fall production number two is Thursday, November 12. Bang Bang You’re Dead is a drama inspired by a real school shooting, and it addresses the topic of gun violence in America, particularly in schools. It poses the question: What would make a young man raised by loving parents shoot and kill his classmates?

“The play presents possible explanations for this horrific act but settles on none,” reads the play’s description. “We are left with the memories of the victims and the tortured thoughts of the killer.”

English teacher John Heavey is the director of the play, and he has said that he hopes to shed a light on the topic of the need for gun control.

Heavey has said that this production’s goal is to “open a dialogue,” and a Q&A session will follow each of the three performances.

who won last week’s Facebook Fun Friday!

This week we’ll have a a Gift Card to Dunkin’ Donuts!

Bang Bang You’re Dead opens November 12 at 7:30 pm at the Will Parker Black Box Theatre. Two more shows follow on November 13 at 7:30 pm and November 14 at 7:00 pm. Seating is limited, so reservations need to be made in advance through the receptionist’s desk at the Stroud Academic Center or by calling 508-748-2000.

Tabor also welcomes its annual Fall Dance recital on Thursday, November 12, at 6:30 pm at the Fireman Center for the Performing Arts off Front Street.

The dance team of 23 students is a winner, having won several first-place awards last year, including the largest competition, “Starpower,” in Rhode Island.

The event is free and open to the public.

Bike Path and Home Rule Articles Questioned

Mattapoisett Special Town Meeting

By Marilou Newell

It didn’t take long for Town Meeting voters in Mattapoisett to routinely move money around from one account to another, or to appropriate funds for infrastructure work such as new water mains and roadways repairs. However, residents voiced their concerns when it came to forking out more money for the bike path and changing the voting structure when dealing with general bylaws.

Article 6 would have authorized the Board of Selectmen to file a Home Rule Petition that would change the way Mattapoisett’s General Bylaws are amended or altered, from a simple majority vote to a two-thirds majority vote.

Donald Fleming, a resident and practicing attorney asked, "Why would people want to give up their right? The board is suggesting limitations on every citizen in this town. Zoning needs a two-thirds vote because it deals with property..."

Fleming felt that, by passing this article, residents would be more restricted in petitioning through the town meeting process.

Brad Hathaway spoke up, "Majority rule has served this town well for 60 years!"

Kevin Geraghty, resident and Finance Committee member, also voiced his concern saying, "I agree with what I'm hearing from the crowd. Why get a super majority? I haven't heard any reason why we need to restrict people's ideas. Two-thirds makes it harder for the average citizen."

When the vote was counted, the article carried 52 in favor and 41 against. That brought Ray Andrews to his feet, asking Town Moderator Jack Eklund for a motion to reconsider.

"Move this to the Annual Town Meeting," said Andrews. "The vote is too close."

Eklund was not disposed to do so, however. He explained in detail that he had researched his responsibilities and authority to decline such a recall. In spite of Andrews, again asserting the vote was too close, Eklund dismissed the request and the meeting continued.

Article 18 pertained to the bike path and asked voters to approve another $30,000 for test borings required by the Massachusetts Department of Transportation.

Presenting the article was Bike Path Committee member Robert Price.

Price explained that the test borings is a new requirement added since the birth of the bike path and its proposed traversing of sensitive wetlands. The DOT wants to ensure sufficient rock material for anchoring a bridge across Eel River and associated wetlands.

Residents stepped up to the microphone speaking both for and against spending these additional funds.

Bill Dumas said he had been sitting in the same location in the high school auditorium for town meetings since 1972 and since the 1980s, he said, "We were told the bike path wouldn't cost us anything. How much is the 'it's not going to cost us anything' is it?"

Others expressing concern that costs might continue to ratchet upwards were Finance Committee member Elisabeth Pennington, Selectman Jordan Collyer, and resident Bill Sweeney.

Voters speaking on behalf of supporting approval of the article were Principal Assessor Kathleen Costello, and residents Randy Smith, Jim Dildine and Mike Botello.

Town Administrator Michael Gagne said that, to date, the town had ponied up $470,000 for engineering and design services.

In the end, the sentiment of the assembled was to approve the spending. The article carried 82 in favor, 7 against.

Highway Surveyor Barry Denham presented Article 13 pertaining to town bridge and culvert design. The article asked voters to support spending $25,000 of free cash to perform assessment of culverts throughout the town, with most along the beleaguered Acushnet Road. The article easily passed 93 to 0.

Regarding Article 15, Library Roof Repairs, Gagne explained that due to a product failure of the roof tiles installed less than ten years ago, the town was engaged in litigation against the manufacturer. In the meantime, the library roof needed a hefty $189,000 worth of repairs. The article carried 93 to 0.

Fifteen articles were easily put through with monies going towards much-needed water and sewer projects, roadway repairs, or the rescinding of borrowing authorizations previously granted.

Article 16, Replacement of Damaged Police Cruiser, was withdrawn by Chief Mary Lyons.

In a tender moment mid-way through the evening, Nick Nicholson was acknowledged by the selectmen for his many years of service to the town in his role as Water and Sewer Superintendent. He is scheduled to retire in December. Nicholson received a standing ovation from all in attendance.

that in order to pass special legislation to accept the June 8, 2015 Annual Town Meeting, which was held without a quorum, Governor Charlie Baker must be the sponsor of the bill, not the Town of Rochester.

Selectmen authorized Town Counsel Blair Bailey and Town Administrator Michael McCue to draft and submit the special legislation to the House of Representatives on behalf of the Town to accept the results of the Annual Town Meeting. McCue told selectmen on November 1 that he planned to attend a meeting the following week with the Joint Committee on Municipalities and Regional Government to speak about the special legislation, but on November 5 McCue said he no longer needed to attend the meeting.

"We've been instructed by the House to go a different route in terms of seeking legislation," McCue said on November 5 during a special morning meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen. "The route now is to petition the governor."

The board voted, authorizing McCue to send the letter addressed to the governor to Representative Bill Straus' office, which will then be forwarded to the governor's office.

"This is the way we should've gone about this," said Selectman Naida Parker. She cited other towns that have had to seek special legislation similar to Rochester's situation. "So this isn't breaking new ground...."

Immediately after the meeting, McCue scanned a copy of the letter to send electronically to Straus' office, and he said he would follow that with a hard copy of the letter in the mail.

Selectmen postponed the November 30 Special Fall Town Meeting last week until the Annual Town Meeting matter is resolved.

has done research and held months of study and public meetings, and numerous options have been explored – but in the end, cost seems about to trump desire.

Built in 1890, one of several buildings in the area funded by well-known benefactor Elizabeth Taber, the Marion Town House has long been a cornerstone building serving the needs of a community passionate about its Victorian village character. However, during the Town House Building Committee meeting on November 5 – held in the Marion Music Hall, another iconic building– it was not clear that taxpayers were willing to open their wallets wide enough to fund a multi-million dollar construction project.

with architect Peter Turowski of T2 Architecture and his team, presented residents with two conceptual plans that have been selected out of a field of eight possibilities. They cited numerous current building code violations and the costs associated with maintaining decrepit buildings as critical issues for the residents to consider.

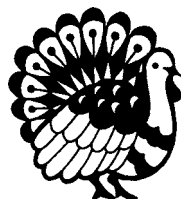

Raymond presented the two concepts that the committee believes meet the needs of the community.

Concept A offers a rehabilitation plan primarily for the town house with an aesthetically-pleasing addition at the back of the building and additional parking. Concept A is pegged at just over $12 million with an average taxpayer impact of about $188 per year.

Concept B is a grander idea involving both the town house and the library with full-scale rehabilitation, additions to each historic structure, and a connector building joining the two properties. The connector building could be used for a variety of functions including space for the Council on Aging and also features new parking areas. Concept B is estimated at $28 million with an average tax impact of approximately $421.

"Have you guys really looked into how this thing is going to fit into this town?" questioned resident Ted North. Financial spreadsheets in hand, he said that current and future expenses the town faces came in at a whopping $163,000,000, continuing, "and now you have prosed $21 million for a town house project!" He concluded, "If you look at a twenty year net value that becomes $25,000 or $35,000 per taxpayer."

Raymond replied, "We were just asked to look at the town house, library and Council on Aging." He said the project has some flexibility, noting that the buildings "aren't going to fix themselves," and that, as time passed, construction costs would only rise. He said the committee would be talking to the selectmen about applying for state grants and other funding sources to relieve some of the financial burden taxpayers would face.

"This project falls into historic restoration ... it should be paid for with private money," said North. "If these buildings are so important to Marion, then a foundation should be established to raise private money," he said.

The mood of the audience seemed to echo North's, until it came to the question of tearing down the town house and building new, an idea floated out by resident Stephen Kokkins. "Tearing down and replicating it so that Mrs. Taber from fifty feet away wouldn't know the difference ... is a less expensive option," Kokkins asserted.

Most, however, agreed with resident Bill Saltonstall.

"I'm in favor of trying to preserve the building," said Saltonstall.

Raymond said the committee would continue to engage the public moving forward as they prepare to put the future of the town house and library to the voters at Town Meeting.

Electric Cars Proposed for Town of Marion

Marion Energy Management Committee

By Marilou Newell

With an agenda full of promising energy economies and alternative energy opportunities, Marion Energy Management Committee member Jennifer Francis presented another intriguing idea: electric cars for municipal use.

What Francis had discovered was a state program that provides incentives for eligible public and private entities to acquire electric vehicles, as well as the installation of charging stations, at reduced cost.

In speaking with Evan Melillo, administrative assistant to the Dartmouth town administrator, Francis learned the complexities of the state grant process. She told the committee members that Melillo was successful in completing the grant paperwork for Dartmouth. Since August, Dartmouth has been using several electric cars that have been largely paid for by the state incentive program. She said charging stations are part of the program, making use of the alternative energy vehicles more viable.

The committee members discussed which town departments might benefit from use of the compact car styles. They thought that such departments as the Board of Health, building inspector, and possibly the Police Department detectives might fit best for these economy automobiles. They also discussed the cost benefits of selling off older gas-powered vehicles versus paying for ongoing maintenance.

Francis will invite Melillo to a meeting in the next two months to learn more about the process. Melillo has offered his service to the town.

In other matters, committee member Eileen Marum reported on her efforts to draft a comprehensive energy management document that will contain such language as Marion's intention to lead by example, to become a leader in energy management in the southeast. Furthermore, that town departments should measure energy-saving initiatives and all town departments should participate in the process are issues that are also addressed.

Member Bill Saltonstall brought the group up to date on the massive wind turbine project currently being constructed in Plymouth by Con Edison. He said Marion's designated turbine would be completed in the coming weeks.

"It's really very exciting and should result in 20 to 30 percent reduction to the town," Saltonstall said. The cost savings will be realized by the municipality for its power consumption.

The committee is also looking at solar options, but await updated information on two solar projects – one proposed for Tucker Road in Rochester and one at the Benson Brook transfer station in Marion.

The next meeting of the Marion Energy Management Committee is scheduled for November 23 at 7:00 pm at the Marion Music Hall located at 164 Front Street.

More Solar Farms Proposed for Rochester

Rochester Planning Board

By Jean Perry

Two more new solar energy facility projects came before the Rochester Planning Board on the long night of November 9, when the meeting went roughly three hours into the night.

Rochester is becoming familiar with the nature of the solar project proposal process, and residents, one by one, are becoming more knowledgeable on the subject, too.

Some abutters to a solar farm proposed by Melink Corporation off Snipatuit Road over near Quaker Lane were getting their first lesson in solar farm development and planning, raising many of the same questions abutters to other projects have had. What about screening? Are solar panels toxic? And a new one, aren't the tree stumps left behind after clear-cutting full of toxic chemicals?

Engineer Rich Rheame addressed each abutter's concern, including abutter John Hall's concern over the size of the rocks the excavators will surely encounter, he said.

"They're gonna find icebergs," said Hall, concerned mostly about the amount of heavy truck traffic that would ensue after enormous rocks – too large to keep on the property – would be removed down the 18-foot gravel drive right against his property line. "There's no space to store rocks," continued Hall. "I've been very vocal about this ... my property line, you don't mess with that."

Rheume suggested the method of affixing the panels to the rock would be sufficient, screwing the panels into the rock with what he called a "fairly narrow screw, like a sheetrock screw," to which Hall scoffed. Rheume assured Hall that the project would undergo a thorough geotechnical review before construction.

The site plan, as Rheume described it, calls for eight acres of a 16-acre parcel to be cleared for rows of solar arrays, which will abut a roughly 100-acre parcel of land Melink offered to the Town as a donation for open spaces, which the town recently accepted.

The plan calls for a no-touch 50-foot area of the eastern perimeter of the site, plus an additional double row of Leyland cypresses, with a 6-foot chain-link fence surrounding the site for security. All work will be kept outside the 100-foot wetlands buffer to avoid certain filings with the Conservation Commission.

The project has received approval from the Mattapoissett River Valley Water Supply Protection

Advisory Committee and, due to the presence of eastern box turtles, has filed with the Natural Heritage & Endangered Species Program and is awaiting approval.

One resident was not happy about the project, saying she never would have purchased her house 11 years ago if she knew a solar farm would eventually be built behind it.

Other neighbors had concerns over the length of the gravel drive and the gate that would be placed 100 feet down the road, which might be just long enough to appeal to those engaging in unsavory nighttime activities. Because the Town insisted on having the entry down the gravel road to accommodate a few public parking spaces for access to the newly acquired conservation land, the gate could not be put at the entrance on Snipatuit Road. Planning Board Chairman Arnold Johnson said 24-hour video surveillance might deter trespassers, even those trying to use ATVs at the site.

Johnson gave Rheäume a short list of what he wanted to see by the next meeting, which included things such as a more detailed landscaping outline and some simple "housekeeping" of paperwork. The hearing was continued until December 8, allowing enough time for the board's peer review process and to ensure all members of the board would be present.

In other matters, a familiar player in the solar farm field was again before the board, this time for an informal review of a proposed solar farm to be located at

Clean Energy Collective, developers of the Clemishaw property solar farm, is interested in developing seven acres of a 12-acre lot for solar arrays. During this informal meeting with Clean Energy Collective Project Manager Greg Carey, the board granted a few waivers the developer requested, such as waiving the requirement to flag every tree of a 12-inch caliber or greater. Three utility poles will be allowed within the first 100 feet of the entrance, and a waiver for open space requirements was granted, but the board chose to hold off on granting a waiver for stormwater management.

"We're getting more and more familiar with solar," said Clean Energy Collective's engineer Bob Rogers as he moved ahead into the minutiae of the project, similar details he has presented to the board before for other solar projects.

Also during the meeting, the board approved a request for an amendment to the site plan review approval for Rochester Crossroads at the intersection of Routes 58 and 28. The company recently acquired an abutting property and will now grade the land instead of having to build a retaining wall. All other details remain unchanged.

The board ratified the written decision for the Clean Energy Collective proposed solar farm at the Clemishaw property in Marion, with the access road to

Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

I realize that I should take my cat to the vet annually to get a physical and whatever vaccinations may be due, but getting the cat into the cat carrier is a chore. Any hints?

Cats are not dumb. If they see the cat carrier come out they disappear. Some cats don't mind the carrier if it is left out all year round. Feed them in the carrier, allow them to nap in it, let it be associated with more pleasant experiences than a car ride.

If you haven't gotten the cat to think positively about the carrier, put the cat in a bathroom prior to getting the carrier out of the basement. That way the cat can't disappear. Bring the carrier into the bathroom and keep the door closed so the cat won't escape. Feliway is a pheromone that may decrease your cat's anxiety when it is sprayed or wiped on the carrier.

the facility located at 99 Perry's Lane. After a number of continued hearings over the past few months, the project finally received Rochester's official approval after bouncing back and forth between Marion and Rochester.

There was a lengthy discussion over the current draft of the sign bylaw the Bylaw Subcommittee has been working on. Although in the end the board voted to move forward with deferring the new language to the selectmen, one resident was vocal about government taking away residents' constitutional right to free speech.

"I don't like clutter," said David Ecker. Some signs are ugly, but he does feel strongly about people's absolute and total right to express their views.

Ecker specifically opposed language addressing political signs, which mandates that political party / candidate signs must be removed within 48 hours of an election. Ecker opposed restricting any resident's rights further with this bylaw, but did not realize that the 48-hour rule was already written in the current bylaw. The new language simply tweaked language about not allowing campaign signs before one month leading up to an election – a change, said Johnson, "that riled some of the town officials."

The new limited commercial district bylaw was also slightly changed as it pertains to solar energy installations after some trial and error with the proposed solar farm for a plot of woods between New Bedford Road and Dexter Lane.

Johnson said the new language includes a provision that would mandate an absolute no-touch 20-foot buffer around the perimeter of the project, and the landscaping section of the bylaw would be amended to further mitigate the cutting of trees of a 12-inch caliber or greater.

The public hearing for the Renewable Generation LLC solar energy project slated for New Bedford Road was continued until November 18.

Marion Grappling with Coyotes

Marion Board of Health

By Jean Perry

Marion businesses will soon be issued a Marion Board of Health order to keep a lid on their dumpsters and keep those lids tightly closed after a string of incidents of coyotes breaking into commercial trash receptacles.

"There is a very bad problem with coyotes," said Health Director Karen Walega on November 10. "There is a huge problem right now in Marion."

Walega cited a recent incident at Cumberland Farms on Route 6 where coyotes managed to access trash in a dumpster left uncovered.

"I see them everywhere," said Board of Health member John Howard. In an aside, he added, "And you can't shoot them, can you, unless you're very clever.... Apparently, it's illegal unless they don't see it." The board, in its ensuing discussion, made it clear that shooting coyotes is a crime.

Residents will also be made aware of the increasing reports of coyotes getting into trash barrels in the form of a public announcement of some sort issued by the Board of Health Office.

Meanwhile, Board of Health member Albin Johnson strongly urged residents to be aware of their trash.

"You can't leave your trash unprotected," said Walega. However, it seems as though coyotes are sort of taking over, as Howard put it.

"I always tell people that have cats [to] keep them indoors," said Walega. "That's going to be a prime target. They love cat."

The next meeting of the Marion Board of Health is scheduled for November 24 at 4:30 pm at the Marion Town House.

purchase a commercial blender for the new RMS breakfast program, and Principal Derek Medeiros says he could not possibly be more grateful.

"With this commercial [blender] they will be able to make fifteen smoothies in one shot," said Medeiros on November 5 to the Rochester School Committee.

The delicious smoothies whipped up by the RMS cafeteria staff are a real hit with the students, helping to make the RMS breakfast program the most popular of the Tri-Town school districts. Thus far, staff could hardly keep up with the students' demand for smoothies as popularity of the breakfast program increased.

"We've literally been using household blenders," said Medeiros. Those can only make a batch of three to four smoothies at a time.

Medeiros said that on October 16, he was sitting in his office when he got a call from the school secretary, announcing the arrival of an envelope with his name on it. Someone had slid the envelope under the door and left without notice. Inside the envelope was a check for $3,000 and a handwritten letter.

"Dear Mr. Medeiros, Recently I read the article in The Wanderer about the need for a stronger blender for the ... breakfast program. I decided that it would make a perfect gift in memory of my husband who recently passed away...." The letter was signed, "Most sincerely..."

Medeiros said he was shocked and equally thankful when he opened the envelope.

"Thank you to whoever this person is," said Medeiros. "While I've been principal, I've never had a donation like that."

"This is extraordinarily generous," said School Committee Chairman Tina Rood.

As the breakfast program expands, Medeiros said he is looking toward opening the library to the sixth graders during breakfast, making it an "Internet Café" of sorts for the students and allowing open use of the computers, laptops, and tablets while they enjoy breakfast.

"It could be an opportunity to have the technology at their fingertips and at the same time socialize,” Medeiros said.

Medeiros and the School Committee lauded the RMS cafeteria staff for their culinary skills and enthusiasm for the program.

“It is nice to have people who love their job in the school,” said School Committee member Jennifer Kulak. “It’s a piece that makes it special.”

Also during the meeting, Director of Student Services Michael Nelson announced an immediate change to the bullying policy in the student handbook, at the advisement of the Department of Education as the DOE performs its audit of the school.

Nelson said language will be added to include members of school staff as possible aggressors or perpetrators in a bullying incident. Nelson said there will be a change to the current physical restraint policy, specifically prohibiting mechanical restraints, seclusion, and the strict limiting of prone restraint (lying face down).

“Physical restraint sounds scary,” said Nelson addressing his comment to parents, “but we use them as we do a fire extinguisher – in the case of an emergency.”

In other matters, Medeiros announced a parents’ informational session slated for December 2 to address the implementation of the ALICE (Alert, Lockdown, Inform, Counter, and Evacuate) program. The tentative date for implementation and student introduction to the program is January 21.

The next meeting of the Rochester School Committee is scheduled for December 3 at 6:30 pm at the Rochester Town Hall.

District Addresses Challenges this Budget Season

Mattapoisett School Committee

By Jean Perry

Mattapoisett School Committee Chairman James Higgins is adamantly against adding further School Choice slots as a way to supplement the budget as a source of revenue – but on November 9, Superintendent Doug White told the School Committee that it is going to have to decide whether School Choice will be an option to address serious shortfalls in revenue, and if not, how the committee proposes to fund the district’s ever-increasing needs.

"Over the past three years, the district has lost $100,000 due to the cutting back of School Choice," White said. "All three districts are going to have to sit down and discuss [School Choice] and get on the same page.... There needs to be a conversation."

Higgins insists that the risk of having to spend more as a result of students coming into the district via School Choice outweighs the financial benefit. For each School Choice student, the district receives $5,000, which arrives the following fiscal year.

The chairman continues to advocate for a Proposition 2½ override to help supplement the school's budget, but the idea is still only being discussed. No one yet is certain that a Prop 2½ override is the answer.

"Increasingly, the committee is asking us to fund the budget using the Excess and Deficiency Account ... and that's not how you fund a budget year after year." The rainy day account funds are being depleted and continued use of the account is not sustainable, White said.

Higgins commented that school administration is going to have to bite the bullet when it comes to approaching town officials during budget season and advocate for the district's needs versus the Town's unwillingness to fund them.

"It's a tough job," acknowledged Higgins, "but that's what they are there to do."

Also during the meeting, Director of Student Services Michael Nelson gave a speedy summary of imminent changes to school policy and the student handbook. Under the bullying policy, school staff and employees will be added to the list of possible aggressors during bullying incidents, and the district is refining its physical restraint policy to prohibit methods such as isolation, and to limit the use of the prone position (face down) restraint. Staff will also be exposed to more training about limited use of physical restraint and how to operate within the school's policy.

The next meeting of the Mattapoisett School Committee is scheduled for December 14 at 7:00 pm at Center School.

The Tao of Choosing Student Novels

Marion School Committee

By Jean Perry

In response to some parental concern over how sixth grade novels are chosen, Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum Dr. Elise Frangos on November 4 presented information on the reasoning and judgment of appropriateness behind selecting assigned literature, giving Marion School Committee members reassurance of the process.

In the past, said Frangos, "Teachers selected books they loved and kind of imposed [them]."

Books now are selected as the teaching curriculum changes and evolves. And as school districts statewide prepare for an eventual review and revamp of the social studies curriculum, which has not been overhauled in years, aspects of current events and topics are often considered along with the reading curriculum for a most comprehensive and relevant read for students.

Selections for this year include Mark Twain's The Prince and the Pauper, the novel Lost Boy, Lost Girl by Peter Straub, and The Breadwinner by Deborah Ellis.

"Each of these books is about heroism ... and resiliency," said Frangos. And they each touch upon the polarizing aspects of human existence that keep us separate until differences are faced and conquered.

"As a parent, I can see why some questions have come up," said Marion School Committee Chairman Christine Marcolini. Some of the books, she said, contained some pretty heavy subject material. "As parents, it's natural to worry, 'How's my child going to react to this?'"

Marcolini suggested the schools poll the students after reading each book to get a feel for their personal takeaway from the novels. She commented that sometimes a parent expects a child to take away something negative from a novel, "But then that's not what the kids take away with them at all."

"I think that could be quite telling," replied Frangos, in favor of Marcolini's suggestion.

Sometimes, said School Committee member Christine Winters, parents just want to know.

Director of Student Services Michael Nelson announced some changes to school policy and the student handbook at the suggestion of the Department of Education during its assessment of the district. First, under the bullying policy, school staff and school employees will be added as possible aggressors in bullying incidents, and the physical restraint policy was updated to include more staff training, the prohibition of seclusion, and the limitation of prone position (face down) restraint.

The next meeting of the Marion School Committee is scheduled for December 2 at 6:30 pm at the Marion Town House.

Making Thanksgiving Better, One Can At A Time

Halloween has come and gone, with Jack-o-lanterns and ghosts being replaced with orange and yellow leaves that crinkle beneath boots. Thanksgiving is right around the corner, and turkeys everywhere are as nervous as us humans are excited for the holiday.

And, although many families gather around tables of cranberry sauce and stuffing, there are many who go hungry, even in our own Tri-Town.

of the Community Service Learning club (CSL) are collecting canned goods in order to give every family a Thanksgiving with a table full of food.

But first, who are the members of CSL, and what do they do?

As club advisor, Heidi Graser said, "It's a group of students that are interested and willing to do various community service acts in the local community, as well as the national community. Students that want to give back." The group meets every other Tuesday to discuss (and carry out) ways to help the community for the greater good.

The food drive, which ends Friday, November 20, is calling on the school community to donate items like stuffing and any other nonperishable food items. There is, of course, a greater need for traditional Thanksgiving foods at this time of year.

"We have a list of food items that has been posted on the school Facebook page," said Graser, which is quite handy for those of us who aren't really sure what a food pantry needs to supply Thanksgiving meals.

When walking through the school, students and staff are surrounded by posters painted in shades of yellow, orange and red, as well as top-notch hand turkeys, promoting the food drive. On top of the posters, there are orange donation boxes, which have been placed in homerooms.

"All food can be donated in students' homerooms

Tabor Cup Fever Strikes Tabor

Tabor Academy News

By Madeleine Gregory

As a boarding school, Tabor students are always searching for new, fun ways to spend their weekends. In the past, there was an ongoing "dorm wars" competition in which different dorms were grouped and competed for prizes. This year, however, a new competition replaced this one – the Tabor Cup.

Dorms and day students are organized into eight teams, and students from each team have opportunities to win points for their team at various events throughout the week.

In some cases, points are awarded to teams just based on participation. These include attending games together or having team breakfasts. These are designed to bring students from different dorms together by having them work towards a common goal. These smaller scale events are also meant to boost school spirit, adding an extra incentive for students to go out and support each other by attending games in bigger groups.

Other events follow more traditionally competitive rules. They are judged either by parents' and alumni votes or by the traditional finishing placement when a certain number of points are awarded to first, second, third place, etc.

The first big Tabor Cup event was the Lip Sync battle, in which groups from different dorm teams took to Hoyt stage to battle each other in their ability to memorize songs and pretend to sing them. Many teams even choreographed routines and practiced ahead of time to make sure they were perfect.

Other events included a Powder-puff Game, in which junior and senior girls play football, Trivia Night, basketball tournaments, cookie bake-offs, ultimate Frisbee tournaments, and more.

"I think the main point of the whole competition is to promote school spirit," says senior Karen Morahan. "Everyone gets really into the different events. My team held rehearsals before the Lip Sync battle, and we all showed up for team breakfast. Everyone definitely wants to win Tabor Cup, but no matter what, it's been really fun just competing." As a proctor in her dorm, Morahan works with the other proctors on her Tabor Cup team to organize team gatherings and make sure everyone participates.

"Tabor Cup kicked off the year great for the senior class," said senior Thomas Kelly. "It definitely showed the power of the senior class and demonstrated how much school spirit everyone had. It set a standard for how much effort we're going to put into school events, and I think that the next rounds of Tabor Cup are going to be even more fun because everyone saw how into it people got, and they know how great it can be if everyone puts in the effort."

The events of Tabor Cup are part of a surge in school spirit before Holderness Day on Saturday, November 14, when Tabor competes against its rival school, Holderness.

There will be two more rounds of Tabor Cup before the year is over, one during each sports season. With everyone excited from this first round, the next rounds promise to be even more exciting.

Football Scores 40 for 4th Consecutive Week, Volleyball Moves to 2nd Round of Playoffs

ORR Sports Update

By Patrick Briand

The postseason kicked off for the remaining Bulldogs' sports teams this week, and there was plenty to cheer about. Chief among Bulldog triumphs were the Volleyball team's Thursday win over Hingham, Boys' Soccer's 3-1 defeat of Bourne on Wednesday, and Football's 44-22 victory over Case on Friday night.

Football: The Bulldogs rocked the Bourne Canalmen 44-8 last Friday, and they traveled to Case this week to begin a mini-road trip and continue their non-playoff post-season competition. For the 4th game in a row, the Bulldog offense lit up the scoreboard by capturing 40+ points in a 44-22 victory. The star was senior running back Darien Dumond who racked up 193 yards from scrimmage and three touchdowns (two running and one receiving). Most of Case's scoring occurred later in the game, after victory was secured; for example, the Bulldogs led 38-7 at one juncture. Their other scoring came on a touchdown run from junior back Nathan Hall and two scores via the run by junior quarterback Cam Hamilton. Next Friday, the Bulldogs head to Rockland with hopes of extending their winning streak to five and getting back to a .500 winning percentage.

Boys' Soccer: The Bulldogs started the MIAA State Tournament at Bourne on Wednesday. The team captured an emotional 3-1 win, thanks to some stellar defense from junior goalie Sam Henrie and senior midfielder Hunter Parker. The goals came from senior Alex Tavares, senior Shane Desousa, and junior Alex Sousa. The boys' Round 2 opponent was Norton High School. Facing them on Friday night, the boys lost 4-0 to end their season. Norton was aggressive and had many shots on goal, and Henrie made several excellent saves to keep the Bulldogs in the game. Congratulations are in order to seniors Tavares, Parker, Desousa, Kyle Medeiros, and Brett Noone on an excellent season. Also, the work of Henrie and fellow junior Sousa cannot go unnoticed, as they were two of the team's strongest players throughout the season and hope to return the squad to the playoffs next season.

Girls' Soccer: Away at Bishop Stang to begin the MIAA State Tournament on Thursday, the girls lost a close 2-1 game. Despite a late comeback attempt, the girls' season unfortunately came to an end with a loss against the Spartans. The Lady Bulldogs' lone goal was scored by sophomore Ava Ciffolillo off an assist from freshman Maddie Demanche. Although he received the usual fantastic play of seniors Amy Bichajian and Sarah Beaulieu, Coach Jeff Lombard was able to develop some solid young players to earn another winning season. Sophomores Caitlyn Kutash, Leah Przybyszewski, and Ciffolillo, as well as freshmen Demanche and Jillian Kutash, are inspiring a good deal of optimism for the future of the program.

Boys' Cross Country: This week, the team's non-varsity runners competed at the State Coaches' Invitational meet in Wrentham. There were three different races for the Small Schools section of the meet: Junior/Senior; Sophomore; and Freshman. Among the standouts in their respective races were juniors Ryson Smith and Jacob Spevack, sophomore Evan Tilley, and freshman Patrick Janicki. Next week, the Varsity unit competes in the D-4 State Meet, which is also being hosted in Wrentham.

Girls' Cross Country: On the heels of last week's victory in the SCC Championship, the Lady Bulldogs' varsity runners earned a well-deserved rest day and the non-varsity runners got the chance to compete at the State Coaches' invitational meet in Wrentham. As was mentioned in the Boys' Cross Country write-up, Saturday's races were split up by the runners' grades. Some of the top runners on Saturday for the girls in their respective races were junior Avery Nugent, sophomore Samantha Ball, and seniors Haily Saccone, Nicole

Mattson, and Rachel Scheub. The Girls' Varsity team heads to Wrentham on Saturday, this time to run in the D-4 State meet.

Volleyball: The girls opened up the week at home against non-conference Somerset-Berkeley on Monday. The girls captured a much-needed victory on four sets. The biggest contributors were a quartet of seniors: Zoe Smith (seven straight service points); Michaelah Nunes (a staggering 32 assists); Hayli Marshall (13 kills); and Olivia Bellefeuille (10 digs). On Thursday, they began the much-anticipated postseason tournament against Hingham. The Lady Bulldogs came out hitting as Nunes (10 service points), Smith (four kills), Bellefeuille (24 service points), and Marshall (six blocks) powered them to a victory on three consecutive sets. The scores were 25-18, 25-23, and 25-16. In the second round, the girls will face off against the well-regarded Notre Dame Academy on Monday.

Field Hockey: The Lady Bulldogs started the week with a rare Sunday game against Falmouth High to close out their regular season. They lost that decision 1-0 despite playing competitively throughout the game. Up against Medway at home to begin the D-2 South section of the MIAA State Tournament on Tuesday, the girls lost a hard-fought 2-0 battle. Once again, sophomore goalie Riley Goulet played exceptional in goal, but the offense couldn't get the job done. Despite losing 13 seniors from last year's team, Field Hockey had a successful year thanks to a developing core of young stars. Among the players slated to make an impact in the future are Goulet, junior Sophia Church, sophomore Alexandra Hulsebosch, and sophomore Arisa Francis. The girls had a winning record this season, but expect even more as they hope to go deeper in the playoffs next year.

Below are the overall fall team records, followed by the conference records in wins, losses, and ties as of November 8.

To the Editor:

At the Town House Forum last Thursday evening, there was much discussion about square footage of buildings, cost per square foot, old vs. new construction, but little inquiry about the comparative merits of the two options presented by the Town House Committee. While renovating the Town House is important, focus on cost masks the bigger question of how to provide Marion residents with the services they both need and deserve.

For those not present at the meeting, Option 1 provides complete renovation of the Town House's interior, improving the efficiency of the offices for 15-20 employees and adding a large meeting room. The renovation includes all HVAC and electrical systems and makes the building fully accessible. The cost is estimated to be $12.5 M.

Option 2 includes renovation of the Town House and uses a connecting building to expand and modernize the library and house a new senior center between the two 1870s buildings. The 148-year-old library's only renovation took place in the early 1980s when the population of Marion was about 1,400 residents. Today, that same space is trying to serve 4,900 people and it is challenging, to say the least. There is inadequate room for children's activities, no quiet space for adults to work and read, not enough room for books or digital materials, no space for programs on site, and deplorable accessibility for those with mobility challenges. Our new librarian, Libby O'Neill, has added technology classes, monthly programs, book groups and other innovative services but is unable to add anything further because of a lack of room. Modernizing the library would benefit every age group in town.

Capeway Veterinary Hospital of Fairhaven hires local veterinarian from Rochester.

Welcome Dr. Rachel Ashley!

The veterinarians and staff of Capeway Veterinary Hospital focus on providing personal service to each client and pet that walks into our hospital. The addition of Dr. Ashley allows us to better provide ready access to our veterinarians and our staff.

Dr. Ashley is a local New Englander and grew up in her family owned cranberry bog from Rochester, MA. Growing up she had all kinds of pets such as dogs, cows, turkeys, chickens, and llamas. She also enjoyed the wildlife such as swans, otters, turtles, geese, and foxes that called her farm home, too. From an early age she developed a love for animals that has only grown deeper with time.

Dr. Ashley obtained her undergraduate degree from Florida State University where she graduated summa cum laude. She spent a couple of years in Southern California as a veterinary technician and then returned to Florida where she graduated magna cum laude from The University of Florida's College of Veterinary Medicine. After being away from Massachusetts for 10 long years, she finally convinced her husband to move to southeastern Massachusetts, back to her true home and where she could be close to family.

Capeway holds a special place in Dr. Ashley's heart. She first started coming to Capeway as a client, where she and her family have been bringing their pets for the past 20 years. She also did a month long externship here during her veterinary education. She enjoys providing quality care for animals while learning about and strengthening the unique bond shared between pets and their owners.

For more information on our hospital or to schedule an appointment with Dr. Rachel Ashley, please visit www.capewayvet.com or contact us at 508-992-0202. Whether you have a new puppy or kitten, an adult, or elderly pet, Capeway Veterinary Hospital provides preventive pet health care, routine and advanced veterinary surgery, diagnostics, and treatment options to meet the needs of Southcoast's pet community.

Option 2 also provides for a community center with space for our growing senior population, estimated to reach 40% in the next decade. Marion is the only town in the area that does not have a permanent facility dedicated to senior needs. This new center would provide program space for senior activities and socializing, room for a social day program and would house the COA offices and town's health services. There would be a large meeting room/ kitchen, serving all three organizations, and available for day and evening meetings alike by having a separate accessible entrance, and for activities like senior lunches.

Although the price tag for Option 2 is high, namely $28.5 M, it would provide much more for the average Marion citizen. A renovated Town House would have efficient offices for town employees and a large meeting room but nothing new in the way of programs. Option 2 would expand the opportunity to serve every age group in town with improvements in services that must happen sooner or later to keep the town up-to-date. In short, Option 2 would provide three times the benefits of Option 1, for a little more than twice the cost, which seems like a better bargain for the future of Marion.

The Town House committee has indicated there are modifications that can probably be made to the current plans to bring some cost savings to the project which would be all to the good. Now Marion residents should share their preferences with the Town House ring, priceless in sentimental value, was lost somewhere during a 45-minute period of trick-or-treating. Conde gave the ring to Moniz for safekeeping and the ring at one point fell out of Moniz's pocket.

Conde and Moniz suspect the ring could have been lost around the vicinity of 7 Earls Court in Rochester and have appealed to local parents to search their children's treat bags for the missing ring.

The ring is described as having a large center stone with a halo of smaller diamonds around it. The couple is offering a reward if the ring is found.

"We are desperate to find this ring," said Conde. "The ring is not just something materialistic, but it was something that had so much sentimental value that we wanted to pass down to our daughter and eventually our future grandchildren."

If you have information about the lost ring, call Joelyn Conde at 508-858-8147 or contact the Rochester Police Department.

personalized and embroidered gifts for all ages. Our themed-basket raffle is celebrating local artisans and stores for our 50th year. Children of all ages will love our toy shop, craft workshop and visit with Santa. The fair honors all major credit cards. Parking is free and the hall is handicap accessible via the Barstow Street entrance.

Bourne Wareham Art Association

The Bourne Wareham Art Association will hold its 2nd Annual Holiday Member Art Show from Saturday, November 21 through Saturday, December 19 at the Jonathan Bourne Public Library during regular library hours.

Come meet the artists at the show's opening reception on November 21 from 1:00 to 3:00 pm.

ORR Athletic Hall of Fame

The ORR Athletic Hall of Fame wants you to nominate someone for induction into the Hall of Fame. Do you know an exceptional former Bulldog student-athlete, coach, or team that left their mark on Old Rochester Regional High School? Do you know an individual who in some special way contributed to helping make ORR Athletics the great program that it is? We'd like to hear about them!

The sixth annual Old Rochester Regional Athletic Hall of Fame induction banquet will be held on Saturday, June 11, 2016, and the Hall of Fame board of directors is currently accepting nominations for induction. The deadline for submitting a nomination form is December 1, 2015.

Nomination forms can be filled out right on the Hall of Fame's website, www.ORRAHOF.com! For you old-school types, you can also download, print and mail in a nomination form if that's more your style. However you do it, just make sure your nomination form is submitted or postmarked by December 1!

There are many folks who deserve to be recognized and honored for their achievements and contributions to ORR Athletics. Their induction into the ORR Athletic Hall of Fame begins with your nomination.

If you have any questions about the Hall of Fame or would like more information, please contact us via email at ORRAHOF@gmail.com or through our website or Facebook page!

Cushing Cemetery Corporation

The Cushing Cemetery Corporation will hold its Annual Meeting on Tuesday, November 17 at 6:00 pm in the downstairs meeting room in the Mattapoisett Free Public Library. At this meeting, the members will be electing officers for the coming year and discussing the future of the cemetery. By definition, anyone who owns a lot in the Cemetery is considered a member and is welcome to come. Cushing Cemetery Corporation's main objective is the care and preservation of the cemetery. There has been a large turnover in leadership in recent years, and we are looking for some new people to get involved and share their ideas. Coffee and goodies will be served. Please consider joining us.

RHS Thankful Potluck Supper

The Rochester Historical Society is hosting their annual Thankful Potluck Supper on Wednesday, November 18 at 6:00 pm at the East Rochester Church/Museum at 355 County Road. This is a change of location for the supper from prior years. Please call Joanne Inman at 508-748-0373 if you will be coming and please let her know what dish you will bring. There will be a silent auction, the Gift Shop will be open, and the Rochester Fire and Police History display is still available.

Alternative Gift Fair

On Saturday, November 14, the Mattapoisett Friends Meeting will hold its third annual Alternative Gift Fair. There will be several local and international non-profits represented, as well as fair-trade crafts, coffee, and chocolate. Participating organizations include: the Mattapoisett Land Trust, the Coalition for Buzzards Bay, Friends of the Mattapoisett Bicycle and Recreational Path, Society of St. Vincent de Paul, the Mattapoisett Historical Society, Heifer International, and Sanga Sangai (Nepal). Local Artist Charlotte Purrington will have a new print on sale in the form of greeting cards. The fair will run from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm. The meetinghouse is at 103 Marion Road (Route 6).

Friends of the Mattapoisett Library

Come play dress-up with the Friends of the Mattapoisett Library at the Winter Jewelry & Accessory Sale, Saturday, December 12 from 10:00 am until 2:00 pm at the Mattapoisett Free Public Library, 7 Barstow Street. A Members-only Preview will be Friday, December 11 from 6:00 until 8:00 pm. Memberships are available at the door and are a great idea for a gift that gives twice over.

Donations of jewelry, scarves, and bags can be brought to the library up to the time of the sale. It is through membership and the sales that the Friends are able to help support the many programs and events that keep the library a vibrant part of the community. Take a little time to come try on the bling, find some treasures for your own crafting, or a gift for someone on your list.

The Second Saturday Book Sale will return in January.

Thanksgiving Pies at the Rochester Women's Club

The Rochester Women's Club is taking orders for their homemade Thanksgiving Pies. Please order your pies by November 20. Pick up will be November 24 between 3:00 and 5:00 pm at the club house. We are located at 37 Marion Road in Rochester.

Our members will be making apple, pumpkin and squash pies. The cost is $13 a pie. The profits from the pie sale go directly to the Scholarship Fund. Call Marsha to order at 508-322-0998.

Knights Teen Dance

The next dance is on Friday, November 13 from 7:00 to 10:00 pm for $8 at The Knights, 57 Fairhaven Road in Mattapoisett. Teen dances are a safe place for 6th, 7th and 8th graders to have a good time socializing, dancing and listening to their favorite music on a Friday night. Knights chaperones and a uniformed police officer are on site at all of our dances.

Flight to Freedom

The Mattapoisett Woman's Club will hold their November meeting on November 19 at noon in Reynard Hall of the Mattapoisett Congregational Church, 27 Church Street. Our program will include a talk by Lee Blake, Program Administrator UMD and President, New Bedford Historical Society.

What do you remember from your school days and American History? The internet has some interesting information about the Underground Railroad and many of the slaves, freedmen and women and abolitionists who helped escaped slaves to freedom. One African-American slave who escaped to the north was Harriet Tubman. Over a period of 10 years, Harriet Tubman made 19 trips and guided her parents, siblings, relatives and friends for a total of approximately 300 slaves led to freedom. She was nicknamed "Moses" by abolitionist William Lloyd Garrison and carried a handgun for self-protection; neither Tubman nor the slaves she guided were ever captured.

SHERMAN'S LAGOON by J.P. Toomey

What part did the people in the New Bedford area play in hiding and aiding slaves who had escaped? Did you know that Frederick Douglass lived in three homes in New Bedford? Please join us for Ms. Blake's fascinating presentation of "No Trains, No Tunnels: New Bedford and the Underground Railroad."

We welcome interested residents of all nearby towns to our meetings. You do not have to be a Mattapoisett resident to be a part of our Woman's Club. Questions, to reserve a spot, or ask for a ride, call Barb at 508 864-5213.

Lions International Peace Poster Contest

Anna Kippenberger, a 6th grade student, has taken the first step to becoming an internationally recognized artist by winning a local competition sponsored by the Mattapoisett Lions Club. Her poster was among more than 400,000 entries submitted worldwide in the 28th annual Lions International Peace Poster Contest. Lions Clubs International is sponsoring the contest to emphasize the importance of world peace to young people everywhere. The poster was selected for its originality, artistic merit and portrayal of the contest theme "Share Peace." The judging was held on November 4 at Old Hammondtown School.

Mattapoisett Lions Club President Rob Haley said he was impressed by the expression and creativity of the students at Old Hammondtown School. "It is obvious that these young people have strong ideas about what peace means to them. I'm so proud that we were able to provide them with the opportunity to share their visions."

"Kippenberger's poster will advance to face stiff competition through the district, multiple district and international rounds of competition if she is to be declared the international grand prize winner," Haley said.

Obituaries:

Thomas E. Jaillet, "Tom" 77, of Marion passed away Sunday November 1, at Saint Lukes Hospital, New Bedford after a brief illness. Tom was the husband of Christina (Precourt) Jaillet of Marion.

He was born in Gardner, MA, the son of the late Edgar and Tyyne (Maatala) Jaillet. He attended Gardner public schools and was a graduate of Fitchburg State College and Boston College with a Masters in Math. Tom taught for 55 years in the South Coast Region, retiring from Tabor Academy this past June. He cherished his grandchildren and enjoyed golfing and the Boston Red Sox. He was also a former Fenway Park tour guide.

In addition to his wife he is survived by their children: Heidi Jaillet Katz and her Husband Jeff of Swampscott, Amy Jaillet and Ron Willert of Waltham, Peter Jaillet of Marion and Andrew Jaillet and his wife Andrea of Foxboro. He was the grandfather of Harry, Julia and Joe Katz and Emily and Elizabeth Jaillet. He was the brother of Richard Jaillet of CA.

Relatives and friends were cordially invited to attend his funeral Mass that was held on Saturday November 7, in the Wickenden Chapel, Spring Street, Marion on the Campus of Tabor Academy. Interment followed in Evergreen Cemetery, Marion. In lieu of flowers memorial gifts may be made to Tom's granddaughter's school (the Kevin O'Grady School), checks payable to: Friends of Northshore Education Consortium in memory of Thomas Jaillet on the memo line and mailed to 112 Sohier Rd. Beverly, MA 01915 or on the web at www.nsedu.org

Mable (Wakeman) Vaites, 98, of Mattapoisett died at home November 6, 2015. She was the wife of the late Allan Holmes Vaites, decorated World War II veteran and renowned boat builder and author, with whom she shared 67 years of marriage.

Born November 15, 1916, and raised on Wakeman Farm in Westport, CT, Mrs. Vaites was the daughter of the late John Staples Wakeman and Mary (Gould) Wakeman. She was the ninth and last surviving of their ten children.

Mrs. Vaites also lived with and assisted her sister the late Charlotte Wood and her family at Stonegate Farm in Sherbon, MA and summered in Mattapoisett where she met her husband.

Mrs. Vaites married at Seamen's Bethel in 1938 and the couple spent their honeymoon with Cpt. Small and his wife at New Bedford Lighthouse. Mr. and Mrs. Vaites built their first home in Mattapoisett with remnants from the 1938 hurricane, where they raised their two children, including during a period of time while her husband was deployed with the army in World War II prior to and during the occupation of Japan.

Mrs. Vaites subsequently lived on the shores of Mattapoisett until her death, and along with her husband assisted in raising three of their grandchildren.

Mrs. Vaites was a member of Mattapoisett Congregational Church. She was a graduate of N.E. Deaconess Hospital School of Nursing. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution Fort Phoenix Chapter.

Mrs. Vaites was formerly self-employed as a photographer, and along with her many subjects photographed many local weddings and children. She also enjoyed ceramics, painting and art of every kind. Mrs. Vaites enjoyed spending time with her family. In her later years, she enjoyed gardening and created a secret garden with her husband for the great-grandchildren.

Survivors include a daughter, Gail V. Elen of Fairhaven, a son, Stephen P. Vaites and his wife Carol Jane of Clinton, CT; 5 grandchildren, Stephen E. Vaites of Mattapoisett, Allayne Boruch Esq. and her husband John of Portsmouth, RI, Allan H. Vaites, II and his wife Lora of Marion, Meagan E. Vaites of Clinton, CT, and Peter M. Elen of Fairhaven; 9 great-grandchildren, Ross, Brandy, Catherine and Haley Vaites, Avery and John W. Boruch, Elizabeth, Jenna and Grace Vaites; and many nieces and nephews.

She was the mother-in-law of the late Peter Elen and the sister of the late Wilbur, John, Isaac, George and Robert Wakeman, Charlotte Wood, Ruth Kay, Dorothy Shaw and Margaret Sargent.

Her Memorial Service will be held on Saturday, November 14th at 3 PM in the Saunders-Dwyer Mattapoisett Home For Funerals, 50 County Rd. (Rt. 6) Mattapoisett. Her family will receive guests from 1 - 3 PM prior to her service. For directions guestbook, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

Leona M. (Bellotti) Freitas, 95, of Mattapoisett passed away Monday November 9, 2015 at the New Bedford Jewish Convalescent Home. She was the beloved wife of Manuel C. Freitas; they had been married for 42 years.

Born in New Bedford, the daughter of the late John E. and Evelyn (Desmarais) Bellotti, she lived in New Bedford and Mattapoisett for many years.

She was a communicant of St. Anthony's Church in Mattapoisett, where she was active in many parish functions and activities.

Mrs. Freitas worked along side her husband at Adrian Advertising in New Bedford.

She was a member of the Mattapoisett Senior Citizens.

Survivors include her loving husband; a daughter, Elaine Lambert and her husband Terry of New Hampshire; a granddaughter, Lisa Hurley and her husband Joe; her sisters-in-law, Mary C. Bellotti of New Bedford and Laura Pimenta of Taunton; and several nieces and nephews.

She was the sister of the late John and Louis Bellotti.

Her Funeral Mass will be celebrated on Friday November 13, 2015 at 10 AM at St. Anthony's Church, Mattapoisett. Burial will follow in Pine Grove Cemetery, New Bedford. Visitation will be on Friday from 8:30-9:30 AM at the Saunders-Dwyer Mattapoisett Home for Funerals, 50 County Rd., Route 6, Mattapoisett. For directions and guestbook, please visit www.saundersdwyer.com.

will be selected. The grand prize includes a cash award of $5,000, plus a trip for the winner and two family members to an award ceremony. The 23 merit award winners will each receive a certificate and a cash award of $500.

"Our club is cheering for Anna as her poster advances in the competition, and we hope that her vision will ultimately be shared with others around the world," Haley said.

Kippenberger and the other Peace Poster participants were honored for their participation at morning assembly at Old Hammondtown School.

Many of the Peace Posters are now on display at the Mattapoisett Post Office. View international grand prize and merit award winners at www.lionsclubs.org.

Lions Clubs International is the world's largest service club organization with 1.36 million members in more than 46,000 clubs in 210 countries and geographic areas. In addition to its efforts towards conquering blindness, the organization has made a strong commitment to community service and helping youth throughout the world.

On the local level, the Mattapoisett Lions Club is comprised of a group of dedicated, community-minded men and women who believe in reaching out to those in need. Projects include building and repairs of the shade sheds at the town beach and Ned's Point, wheelchair ramps for those in need, electronic recycling events, canned goods and toy drive at the Holiday in the Park, Peace Poster and Youth Speech Competition, eye glass collection, Pennies for Sight canisters, annual Senior Turkey dinner in April and our signature event Harbor Days in July. With the help of the Rochester Lions Club, we cooked and delivered more than 600 meals to those in need in New York after Hurricane Sandy.

The Lion's Club wishes to thank the Community, Town Government and School Administration for their continued support. To find out more about the Mattapoisett Lions Club, visit our website www.mattapoisettlionsclub.org or follow us on Facebook.

MOVIE REVIEW

Dreamscape

By Rob Gonsalves
www.robsmovievault.com

Twice Upon a Time* (1983). With the voices of Lorenzo Music and Marshall Efron. Directed by John Korty and Charles Swenson. Running time: 75 minutes. MPAA rating: PG.

Something was in the air in the late '70s -- a small, weird, but welcome animation renaissance that popped up in the void left by Disney in their dreary pre-Mermaid days. Ralph Bakshi hadn't yet packed it in, Don Bluth was getting started, and not-for-kids toons like Heavy Metal and Rock and Rule were actually financed and put in theaters. Of course, given the lead time of cel animation back then, most of these didn't hit theaters until the early '80s, coinciding with a rise in sci-fi/fantasy films. Many of these experiments found little box-office traction but gathered cults that persist even now.

The cultiest of them all might well be 1983's Twice Upon a Time, bankrolled by none other than Lucasfilm. It was released in a grand total of one theater, then banished to HBO for a handful of showings, which is how most of its fans caught it. Due to a foofarah over which version was being shown -- there were two, one seasoned with lots of PG profanity, one largely clean -- the film has been unavailable for decades. The cleaner version was the preferred version of its co-director, John Korty, but viewers erroneously considered the more profane version the "uncut, uncensored" one and thus the more attractive one. Now, finally, Warner Archives has made available a burn-on-demand DVD containing both versions.

What the new viewer (as well as the longtime fan who has never seen it in its proper 1.85:1 aspect ratio) will get here is a visually sumptuous experience tied to a fairly simple story given convolutions by Korty, his co-director Charles Swenson, and cowriters Suella Kennedy and Bill Couterie. In the black-and-white land of Din (Earth) live the Rushers (us), who receive sweet dreams from Greensleeves and the Figmen of Imagination. Not-so-sweet dreams arrive courtesy of the nefarious Synonamess Botch, who kidnaps Greensleeves and seeks to entrap us Rushers in waking nightmares forever. Our heroes are Ralph the All-Purpose Animal and Mumford the mime, who must keep Botch from procuring the main spring from the Cosmic Clock, which ... well, you see what I mean about convolutions.

You could very well just let Twice Upon a Time babble and rave in front of you (most of the dialogue was improvised) and care nothing about its plot, because every frame looks as though it were engineered by the Figmen of Imagination. The animation style, which for all I know was limited to this one film, was called "Lumage," in which plastic cut-out figures were filmed atop a light table, resulting in a lively and unique world of subtle hues. It reminded me of Terry Gilliam's madcap creations for Monty Python's Flying Circus, as well as the trippy, quippy wooziness of Yellow Submarine; but its sarcastic, visually fecund spirit is all its own. Animation fans, and admirers of pure cinema in general, owe it to themselves to see this at least once.

I watched Korty's preferred version, which still packs a couple of PG-rated swears (so neither version is altogether school-viewing-safe). The movie is essentially a comedy, satirizing such tropes as the Fairy Godmother (who here wants to be called FGM) and the superhero (goofed on via a caped idiot called Rod Rescueman) and paying homage to its executive patron when a television-headed creature named Ibor plays footage of Darth Vader and Indiana Jones on its face. The biggest name in the voice cast is the late Lorenzo Music, who voiced Garfield for years and does Ralph's voice in the same jaded deadpan. But as I say, you could almost turn the sound off (a good way to avoid the lame, much-derided songs on the soundtrack) and still groove on the colors and the weirdness and the dreams and nightmares and the killer Scotch tape dispensers and so on.

30 artists and artisans will be selling their fine arts and crafts through December 18. The Holiday Shop Hours are: Tuesday - Friday, 1:00 to 5:00 and Saturday, 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Admission is free and all are welcome to come and browse the galleries to find just the perfect gift for that special someone.

Starting at 10:00 am on Saturday, December 12, Timothy Wade, local sand and ice sculptor and painter, will give an ice carving demonstration on the patio outside the Art Center on the Pleasant Street side. Meanwhile, inside the Art Center, local pastel artist Kim Weineck will give a pastel painting demonstration and wood carver Mike McCarthy of Mattapoisett Bird Works will demonstrate his carving techniques. Visitors are invited to come and watch the artisans as they transform ice into sculpture, apply pastels to paper to create beautiful portraits and landscapes, and create beautiful birds from blocks of wood. The Marion Art Center is one of the stops on the Sippican Women's Club House Tour and visitors are cordially invited to come inside and find that one-of-a-kind gift that will be for sale in both galleries.

The Marion Art Center is pleased to host a Holiday Cabaret concert performance by the Occasion Singers on Friday, December 18 at 7:30 pm. Under the direction of Cassandra Morgan, who will also accompany on keyboard, audiences will be treated to holiday favorites including White Christmas, Christmas

Audiences enjoyed the first of two fall drama productions at Tabor Academy last week. Drama teacher Mark Howland wrote and directed "Human Geometry," which focused on how mathematical concepts can be used to understand human relationships. Audiences can look forward to another fall production, "Bang Bang You're Dead," opening Thursday, November 12, at 7:30 pm at the Will Parker Black Box Theatre. The play addresses the serious matter of gun violence in American, particularly in schools. Photos by Colin Veitch

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Your honesty continues to impress everyone who needs reassurance about a project. But be careful you don't lose patience with those who are still not ready to act.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Pushing others too hard to do things your way could cause resentment and raise more doubts. Instead, take more time to explain why your methods will work.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Be more considerate of those close to you before making a decision that could have a serious effect on their lives. Explain your intentions and ask for their advice.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You might have to defend a workplace decision you plan to make. Colleagues might back you up on this, but it's the facts that will ultimately win the day for you. Good luck.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) The Big Cat's co-workers might not be doing enough to help get that project finished. Your roars might stir things up, but gentle purrr-suasion will prove to be more effective.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Someone you care for needs help with a problem. Give it lovingly and without judging the situation. Whatever you feel you should know will be revealed later.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) While you're to be admired for how you handled recent workplace problems, be careful not to react the same way to a new situation until all the facts are in.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Rely on your keen instincts as well as the facts at hand when dealing with a troubling situation. Be patient. Take things one step at a time as you work through it.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Your curiosity leads you to ask questions. However, the answers might not be what you hoped to hear. Don't reject them without checking them out.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Be careful not to tackle a problem without sufficient facts. Even sure-footed Goats need to know where they'll land before leaping off a mountain path.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Appearances can be deceiving. You need to do more investigating before investing your time, let alone your money, in something that might have some hidden flaws.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your recent stand on an issue could make you the focus of more attention than you would like. But you'll regain your privacy, as well as more time with loved ones, by week's end.

BORN THIS WEEK: You're a good friend and a trusted confidante. You would be a wonderful teacher and a respected member of the clergy.

Athletic Achievements

The Regis College women's soccer team had four players named to the New England Collegiate Conference All-Conference team and one player named to the Sportsmanship Team on Monday afternoon by the league offices. Junior Hannah Bouvette of Mattapoisett was selected to the All-Conference Second Team as a defender while seniors Joana Rosa (Boston, MA), and goaltender Rachel Gagnon (Ashford, CT) were named to the All-Conference Third Team. Freshman Caileigh Darragh (Florence, MA) was the Pride selection to the All-NECC Sportsmanship Team.

Gateway Youth Hockey

Squirts: Gateway Gladiator Squirts played a strong game early Saturday morning versus Plymouth Red. Despite being down a few players, Gateway earned the 11-3 win. In the first period, Matthew Paling and Ty David Ribeiro both earned hat tricks with assists credited to Thomas Clavell, Brayden Hathon, Lucas

DeMoranville and Ribeiro. In the second, Paling and Ribeiro each added one more goal with assists from Hathon and Paling. The third was a three-point period with two goals from Ribeiro with assists from Lucy Murphy on both and DeMoranville on one, while Paling added another for the Gladiators unassisted. Thomas Leger was strong in net and made some key saves.

Pee Wees: The Pee Wee Gladiators played their hearts out this weekend. In Game 1, the Gladiators won their Saturday morning Yankee Conference game with a surprising twist as center Ben Demoranville played goal and goalie Ryker King played center for this game. These versatile players, along with the support of their team, did not disappoint as they beat Hingham in a close 3-2 finish. King started the scoring with a goal off of an assist by RJ Vickery. King returned the favor by feeding the puck to Vickery a few minutes later for Gateway's second goal. Hingham would score two of their own to tie the game, but with only two minutes remaining, Matthew Paling netted the game winner off of an assist by Luke Mello. In Game 2, Gateway took to the ice again on Saturday evening playing in their State Play Down game at Brown University. Once again, the team came out fighting with good positioning, passing and hard skating. The North Devils got on the board first, but Gateway evened the score with a goal by Tyler Lovendale off of an assist by Demoranville. Gateway then took the lead in the third period with a goal by Vickery off of an assist by Lovendale. The end of this game would be nothing but pure heart as Gateway tried to hold off the rush by the North Devils who pulled their goalie and tied the game with one minute remaining to force the five minute sudden death OT. Both teams fought hard for 4:59 seconds with goalie King playing an amazing game with stop after stop. The final half second in OT and a controversial call ended Gateway's hunt for the State win with a final score of 3-2 for the North Devils.

Bantams: The Gateway Gladiators defeated Hanover 10-0 on Saturday at Hobomock. Goal scorers included James L'Hereaux (2), Quirino DoCanto (2), Zack Lovendale (2), Chris Cogan, Jack Martins, Nick Snow, and Robert Ramsay. Several goal scorers also added assists, as did Noah Demoranville.

Middle School: The Middle School Jr. Vikings won their second game in a row with a 4-2 victory over a tough Hopkinton team. It was a hard fought game right from the beginning with both teams playing stout defense, ending the first period in a scoreless tie. The score would remain that way until Jack Martins grabbed a loose puck and skated in on a breakaway, beating the goalie five hole, for the game's first goal. Hopkinton hung tough and tied the game with six minutes left in the second period, quickly followed by a go-ahead goal. With the Jr. Vikings down a goal, Bethany Davis beat the goalie with a shot from the blue line, for her first goal of the season, while Robert Maloney screened the goalie. The Jr. Vikings thought they took the lead late in the third, when a shot taken by Seth Tomasik was deflected in by Quirino doCanto, but the shot initially called a goal was ruled a high stick. The disappointment was quickly forgotten, as less than a minute later, Tyler Lovendale tucked in a goal, set up by nice passing from line mates Robert Ramsay and doCanto. Tomasik would add an empty netter to make the final 4-2. Alex DeMarco got the start and had his best night in the net this season, saving every shot sent his way, before handing over the duties.

ORRJHS Senior Citizen Thanksgiving Banquet

The 25th annual Thanksgiving Dinner for Tri-Town (Marion, Mattapoisett, and Rochester) senior citizens, sponsored by the 8th grade class of Old Rochester Regional Junior High School, will be held on Sunday, November 22 at 12:00 pm in the ORRJHS cafeteria. Doors will open at 11:15 am. Three hundred tickets will be available – 100 per town – distributed through the local Councils on Aging. Shut-in meals will be available. Please notify your local Council on Aging with the names and addresses of the intended recipients. Any individual or local business interested in making cash contributions or donating door prizes should call the junior high at 508-758-4928 and speak with Mr. Kevin Brogioli, Principal. As always, we look forward to the continued support of the Tri-Town communities.

Florence Eastman Post 280

The monthly meeting of the Florence Eastman Post 280 will be held at the Post Hall at 7:00 pm on November 18. At this meeting, we will review the Veterans' Day Ceremony of November 11 and our upcoming fundraising efforts, as well as the pending dues changes that will be effective January 1, 2016 when any outstanding, over due dues, will be charged the new rate of $35 as a result of national and state increases.

Bring your ideas for these endeavors as we cannot function without our members' support and, obviously,

Soap Box Derby

Marion Cub Pack 32 invites you to our bi-annual Soap Box Derby for a cause. The Cub Scouts are collecting non-perishable food donations as well as gently used and new toys for local families in need. Collection points are the Marion Police Department and First Congregational Church of Marion until 10:00 am on November 14. On November 14, the scouts will participate in a Soap Box Derby on Holmes Street where they will continue to collect food and toys as well as show off their racing skills. Please bring a food item and watch the scouts' race.

Boys in grades 1-5 interested in joining scouts can come, meet the scouts, try one of the derby cars out after the races are finished (approximately 2:00 pm), and hang out in the "pit" with the scouts. There will be parents to answer questions and register new scouts!

Marion. This year, the dance team is 23 strong! They will perform five hip hop routines, a theatre routine to "Money" from Cabaret, a ballet excerpt from Paquita, a contemporary and a flamenco-style tap routine. There will be many solos and duets.

Last year was one of the strongest years yet for Tabor's dance team. The team attended three competitions and won first place awards at each. At the largest competition, Starpower in Rhode Island, the team secured their place in the world championships for their hip-hop routine.

The event is free and open to the public at 235 Front Street in Marion. Why not enjoy a night of dance in Marion?

I Found the Aardvark!

Each week, hidden somewhere in the pages of The Wanderer is a tiny drawing of an aardvark. The little guy you are looking for looks exactly like the one pictured above (but don't put down this page as your answer, there's another one hidden somewhere in this issue).

Once you find the aardvark you can submit your answer online and if you are right you will get Aardvark Points! You can then use these points to get cool Aardvark Prizes!

To enter visit: www.wanderer.com and Click on I Found the Aardvark

In the November 5, 2015 issue the Aardvark was on page 1!
